CLASS POEM

RUTH BELL
Now she's the kind,
Who never could
Make up her mind.
Between Junior and Bob
And Bob and Bill,
It's certain that
She never will.

DONNA GARRETT
Gal of charm,
Likes the wild life
Of a farm.
Harvest moon
And hay in mows,
And helping Bob
Milk thirty cows.

VIRGINIA KIRKENDALL
Quiet chick.
But very cute and
Very quick.
Can keep house,
And sew and cook.
No wonder she has a
Full date book.

MARY BENEDICT
Quite a line.
She writes poetry
Most Devine!
Wants man with money,
As last resort.
Will trade for penthouse
In New York.

DORIS GARRETT
Quiet, tall
Likes to dance,
Be on the ball.
Thinks men are silly,
Quite a bore,
That's what makes her
Love them more.

BETTY ROSE
Quite O. K.
Does everything
The Navy Way.
Got a figure,
Makes 'em swoon,
Favorite study
Is the moon.

MARDY BRUNN?
That's quite a question.
Will she marry?
Nice suggestion!
Who's her boy friend?
Well we know,
Cause he says
'Just call me Joe'

DOTTIE GUTHRIE
Glamour plus
Swing and sway,
And that's for us.
Takes your breath
In any weather,
We like the way
She's put together!

MERILYN VAN WAGNER
Wild and wary,
Says that she will Never marry.
And to prove that
She's no piker,
She'll raise her kids
To be just like her.

HOWDY CLARK
Or "Little Tweet"
Devastating!
Simply sweet!!
They say he's shy,
That isn't so.
He plays a trumpet,
Can he blow!!!

WILLIAM HALLIWELL
Call him Bill.
Life for him just Can't stand still.
Love 'em, Leave 'em
Is his rule,
(One thing he didn't Learn in school.)

JEANNIE WISLER
(Not a fable)
Has legs that make
Like Betty Grable.
Intelligent,
And she's not fickle,
Sells her smiles
Two for a nickle.

RICHARD CLARK,
(They call him Dick)
Has a girl
Who's quite a chick.
Senior President
So we read;
Picked "Man most likely To succeed".

LEATRICE KILGORE
She's a Mrs.
Likes a sailor's,
Brand of kisses,
Sits at home,
Most every night,
Till hubbys back,
To make it right.

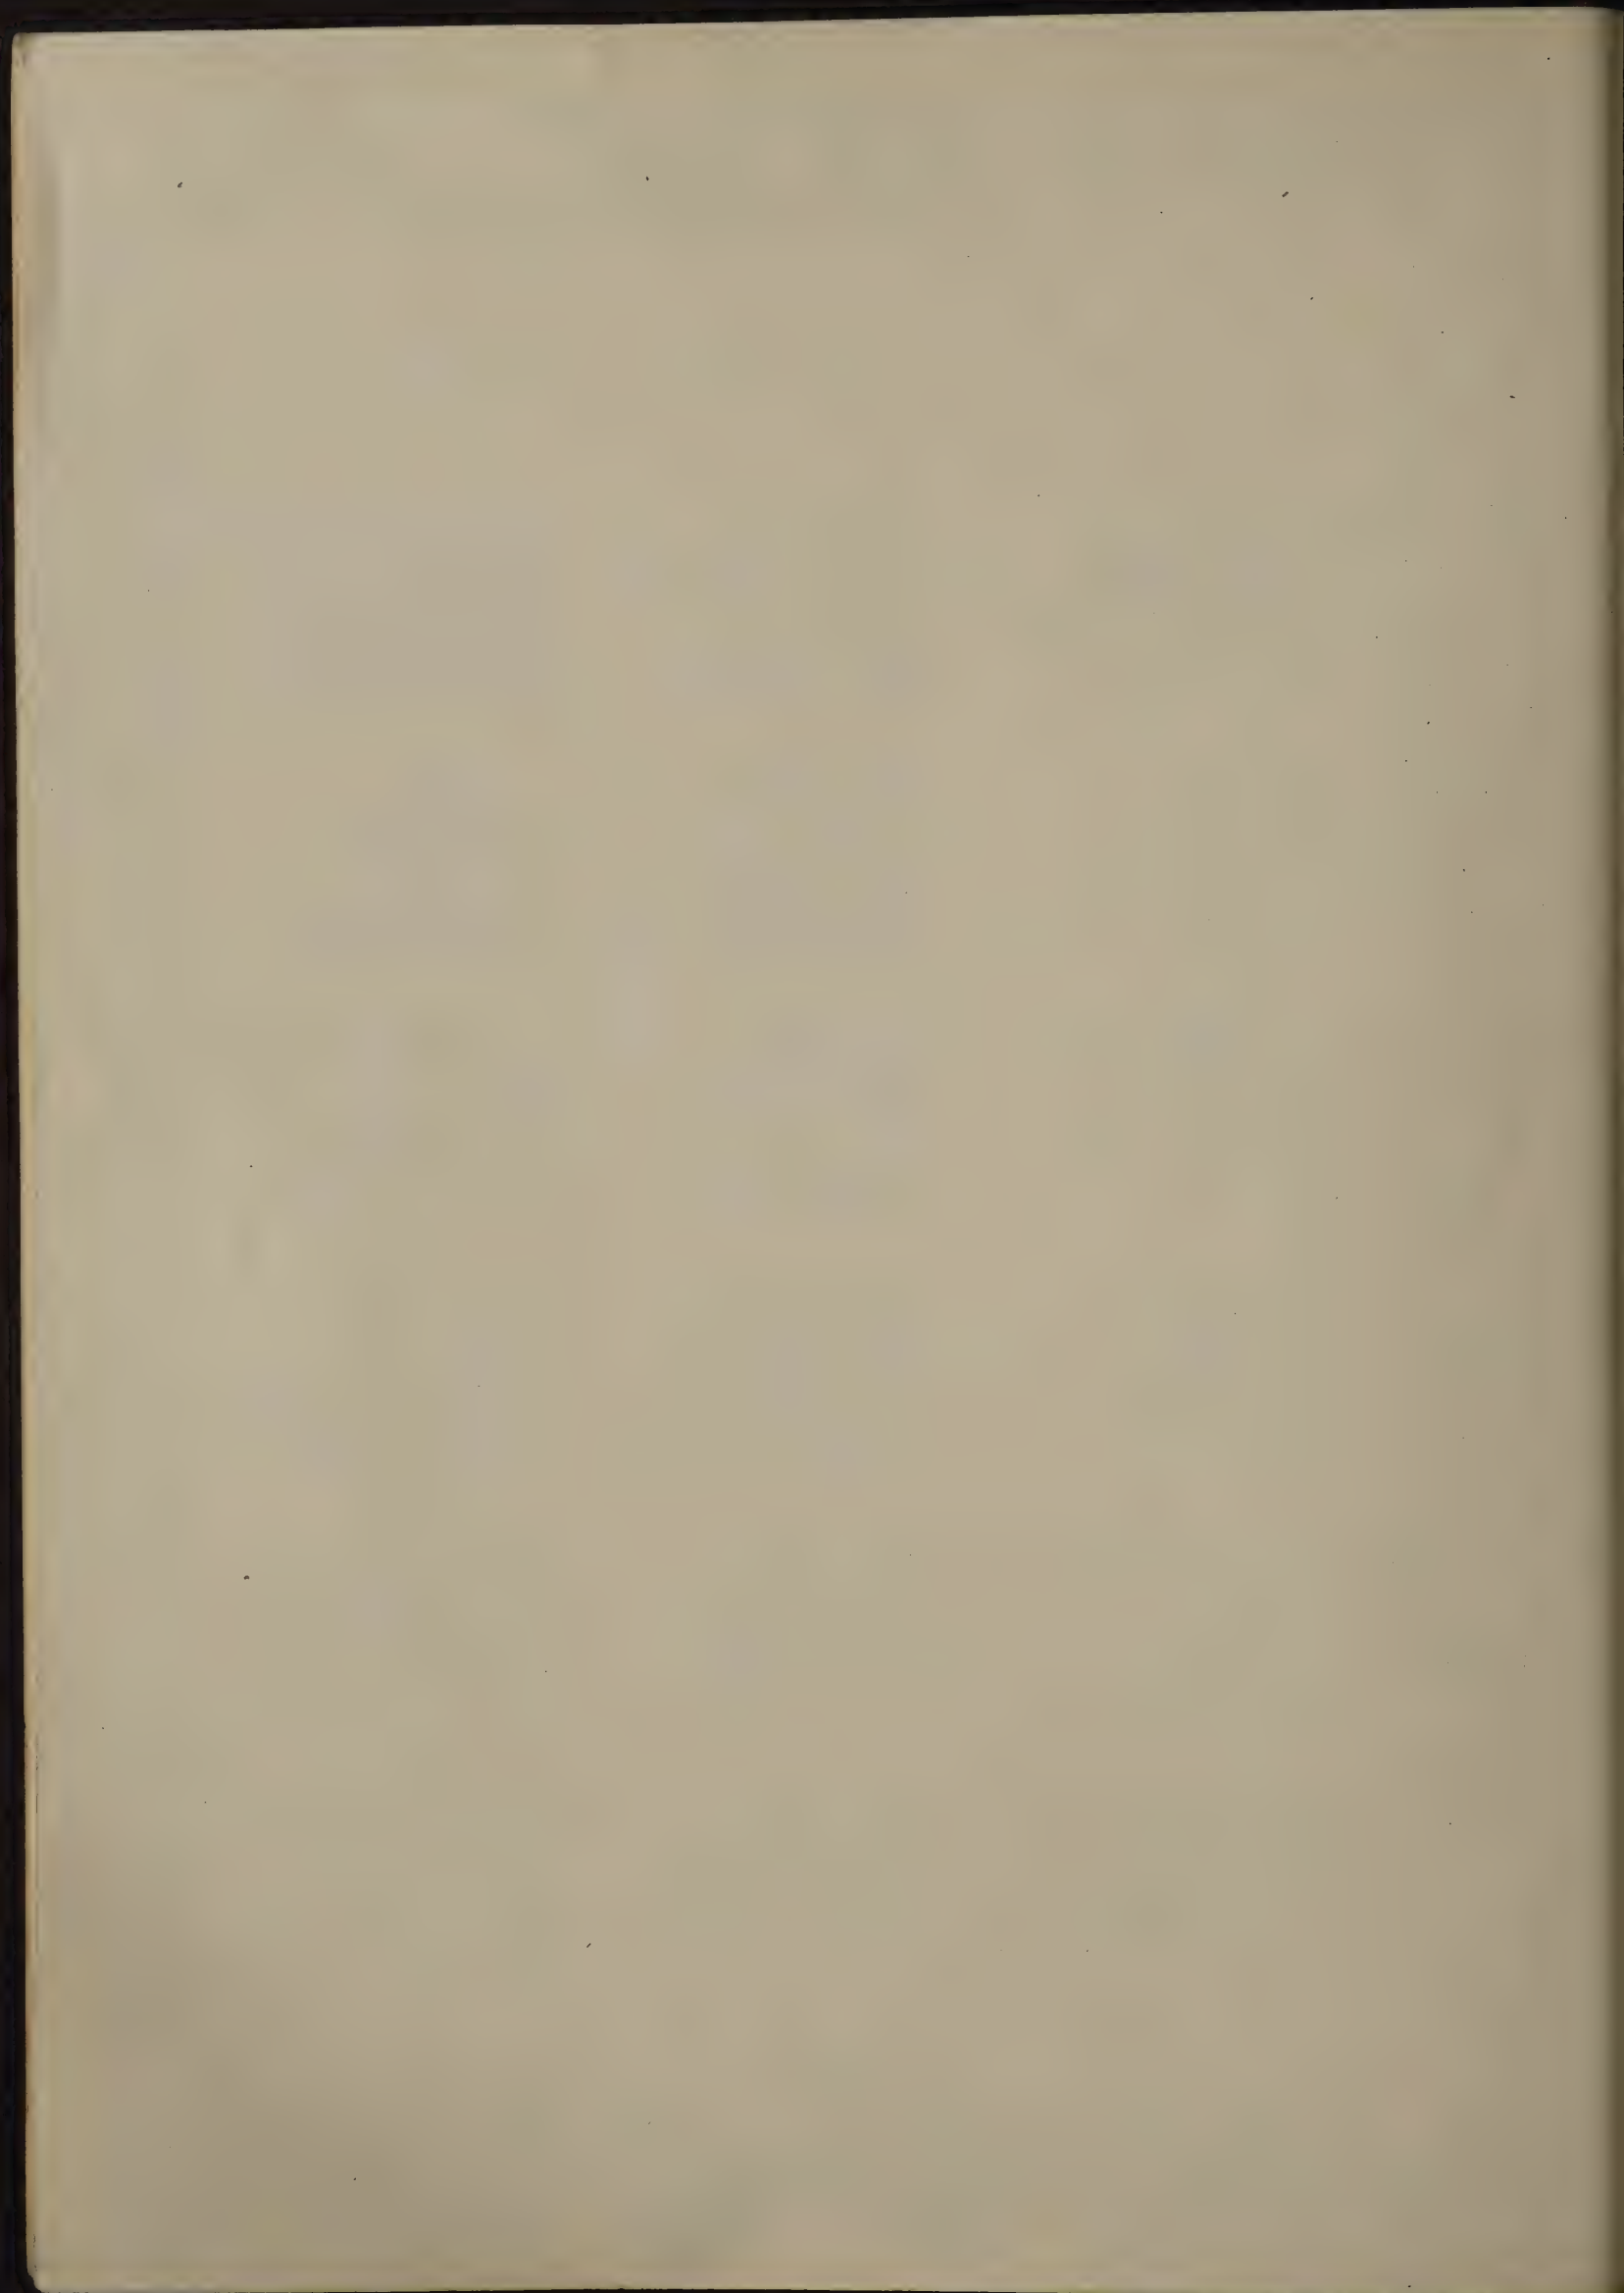

NAOMI WOLFORD
Hey! She's hep.
Solid stuff,
And lots of pep.
Music teacher
That's her wish,
Boogie Woogie
That's her dish!!

BETTY ERNST
She is a honey!
Laughs at anything
That's not funny.
Has a passion
For swing and jazz,
Brother!! That's not all
She has!!

DARRELL HUDSON
Heart of tin,
Says "With girls
You just can't win.
Kiss them once
And do it right,
And you're stuck for
The whole night."

MR. MYLANDER
Right on the beam,
Senior pride
So it would seem.
And when you hear
His well known roar,
It's sure to be
Hey! What's the score?

CLASS HISTOR

Looking back to the year of 1942-43 you find a group of ambitious young girls and boys seated in a very large plane, guns loaded, bombs in place, with their navigator, Mr. Nesbitt, shouting, "All abroad that's going abroad!"

We were going on a long and strenuous journey, we knew, so we elected a good pilot from among us, whom we knew wouldn't let us down. Our pilot was Mary Benedict. Dorothy Guthrie was chosen as co-pilot, and Howard Clark as a helper.

We took as many boys and girls along as were fortunate enough to go, and they were:

Virginia Kirkendall
Bill Halliwell
Darrell Hudson
Jeanne Wisler
Mary Benedict
Donald Smith
Lurley Boggs
Armin Oney
Dick Clark

Merilyn Van Wagner
Dorothy Guthrie
Jerlean Lykins
Martha Miller
Howard Clark
Nadine Reed
John Aumend
Betty Rose
Paul Heifner

Leatrice Whitcomb
Floyd Williams
Naomi Wolford
Donna Garrett
Doris Garrett
Helen Frontz
Lester Ramey
Irene Frontz
Mary Meek

Near the end of the first year of our flight, several members of our crew decided to continue flight elsewhere. They were: Lurley Boggs, John Aumend, Paul Heifner, Donald Smith, Armin Oney, and Lester Ramey.

Only too soon our annual three months summer vacation was gone, and one by one we checked in to continue our flight as the sophomores of 1943-44. We found that we had a few new passengers, who were: Betty Ernst, Marlyn Brunn, and Robert Miller. After everyone was re-acquainted, we started out with a boom, choosing Mr. Pittenger as our navigator, Jerlean Lykins as the pilot, and Robert Miller as co-pilot. Dorothy Guthrie was their helper. This year went very well for us. We gathered scrap paper, which gave us a profit of approximately $80.00. Near the end of this prosperous flight, some of our crew left us, and they were: Irene Frontz, Helen Frontz, and Martha Miller.

Our Junior year was quite a busy one. We had only two new members and they were: Ruth Bell and Rosemary Reber. Miss Foster was chosen as our navigator, Howard Clark as our pilot, Jerlean Lykins as the co-pilot and Dorothy Guthrie as their helper.

Finally we have refueled our plane for the last time, coming in on a wing and a prayer as the Seniors of 1946. We hope to make this a very successful year, so we have chosen Mr. Mylander as our navigator, Dick Clark as our pilot, Bill Halliwell as co-pilot, and Naomi Wolford as the helper. We have gradually bailed out until there are only a few of us remaining to complete the flight, and here we are:

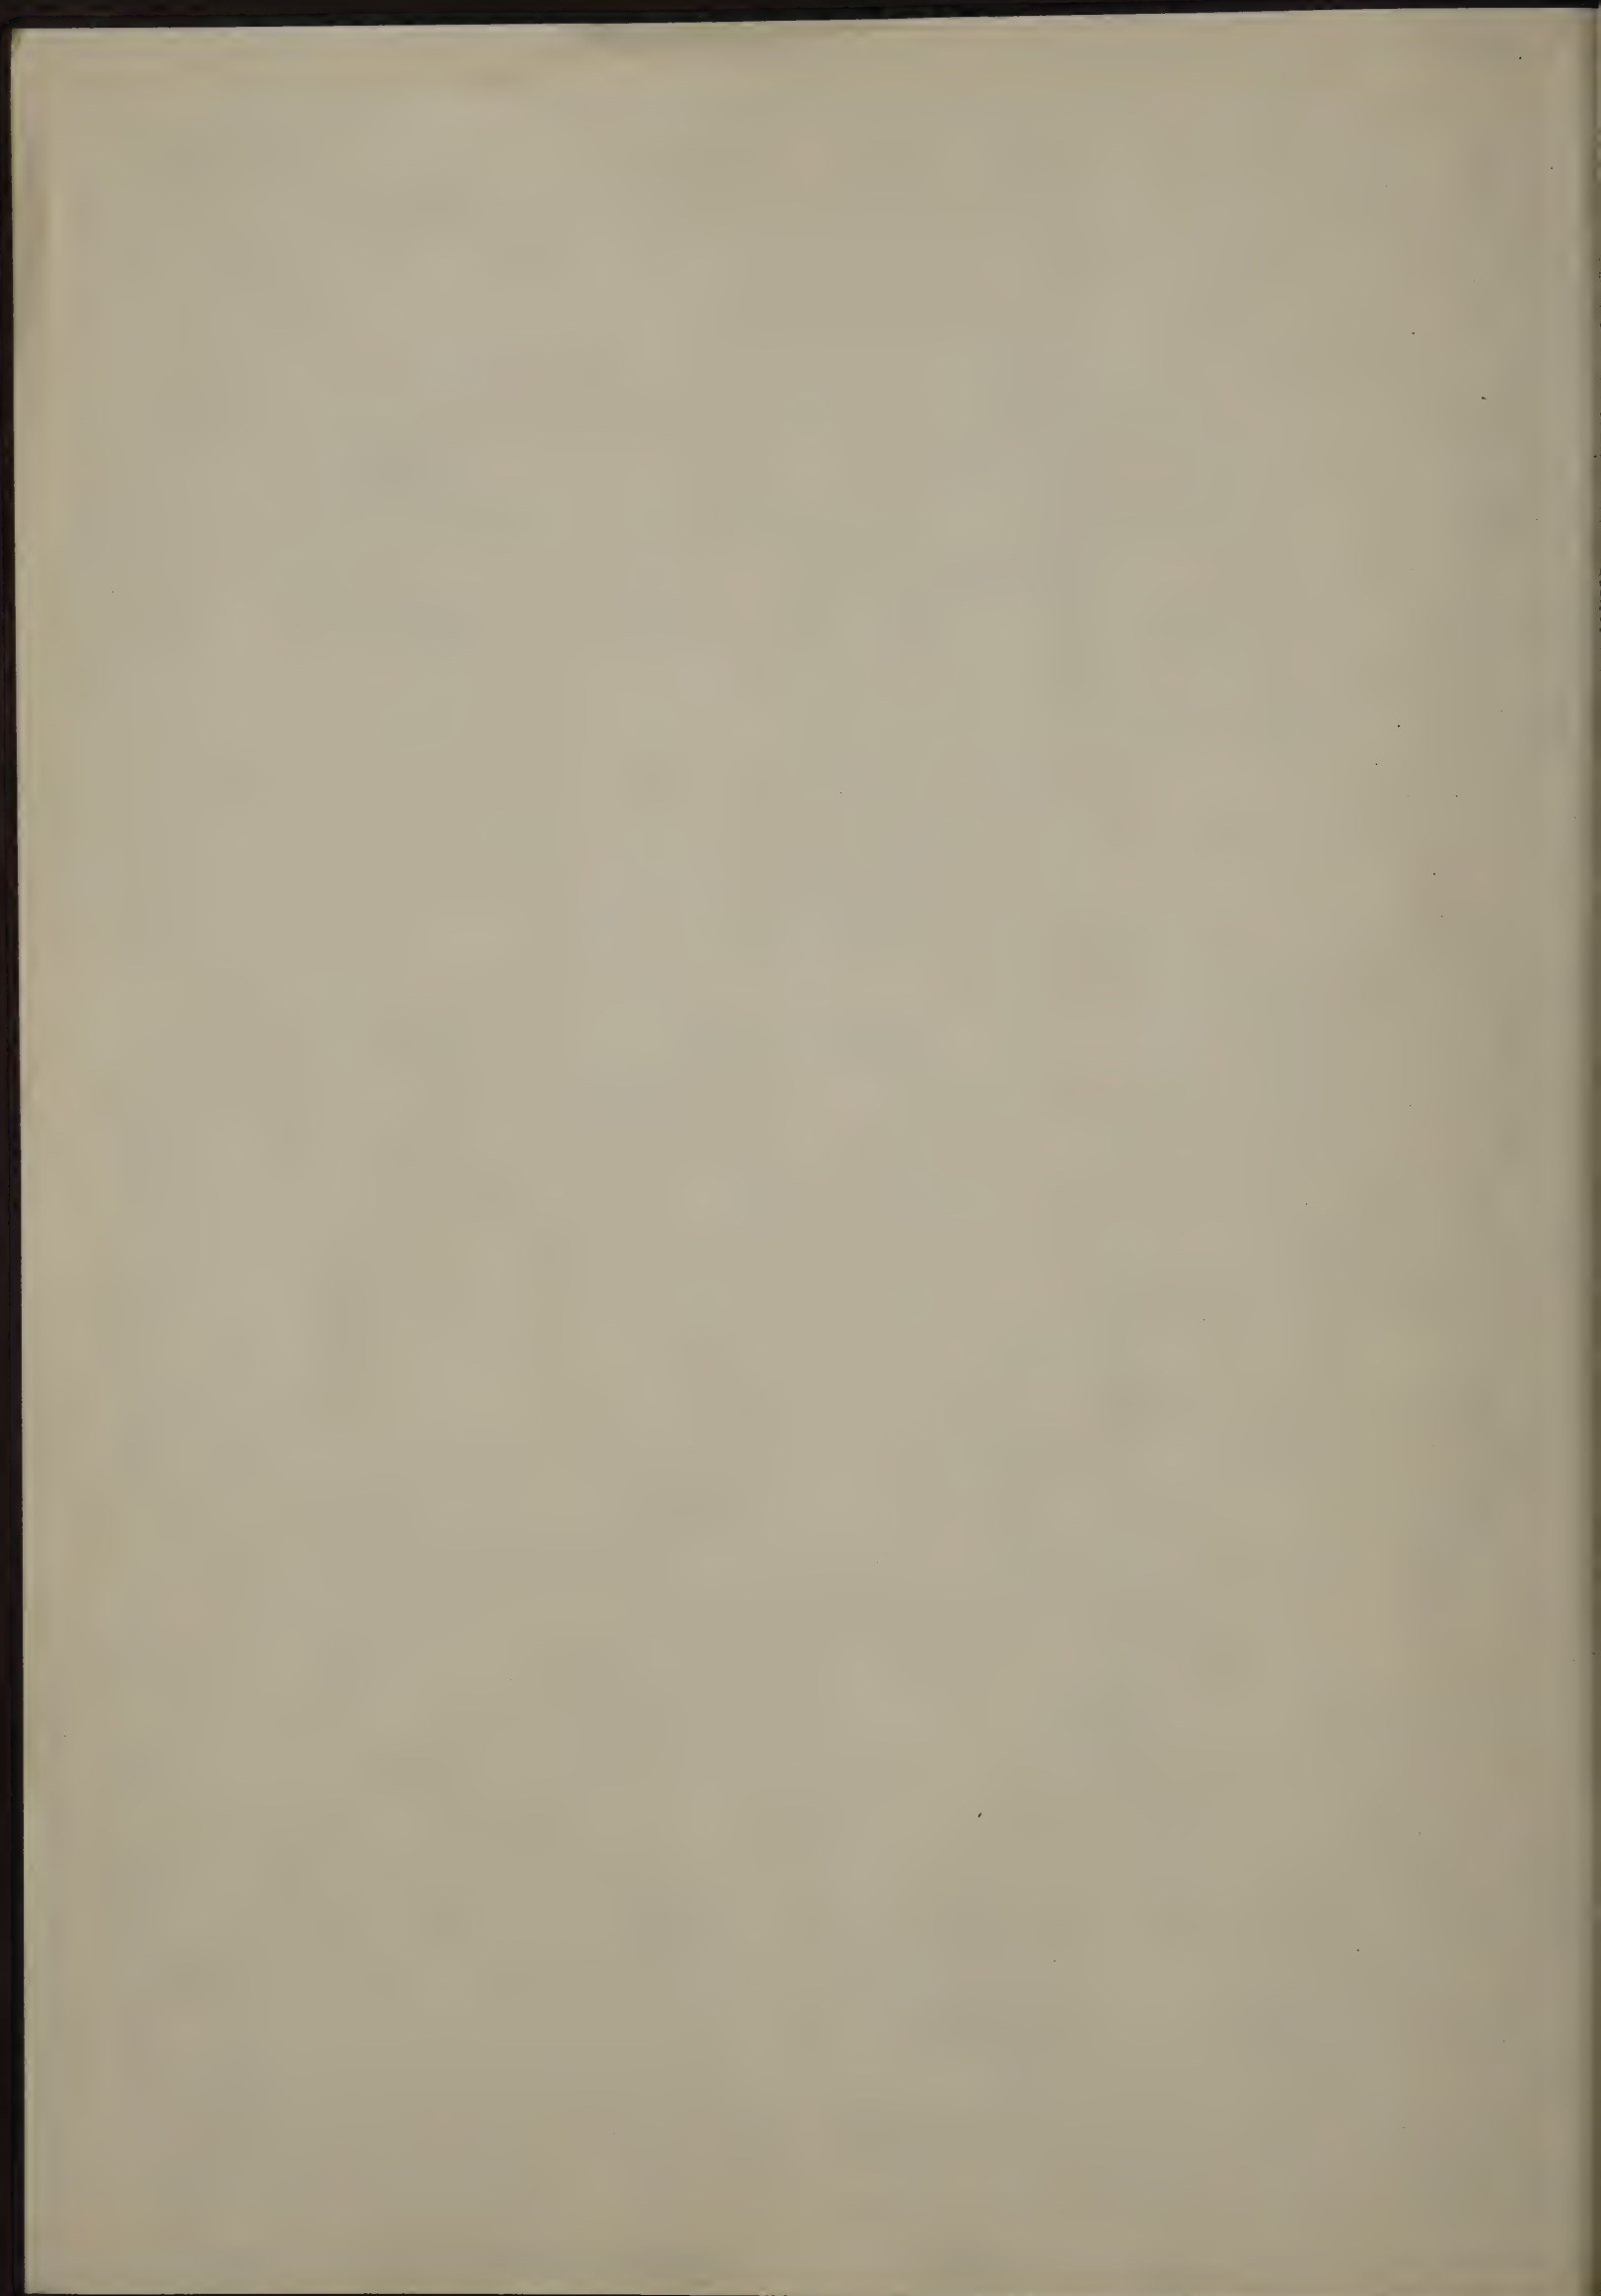

Virginia Kirkendall
Merilyn Van Wagner
Dorothy Guthrie
Bill Halliwell
Marlyn Brunn
Howard Clark

Jeanne Wisler
Donna Garrett
Doris Garrett
Naomi Wolford
Mary Benedict

Darrell Hudson
Betty Ernst
Dick Clark
Betty Rose
Ruth Bell

Also one member who recently changed her name from Leatrice Whitcomb to Mrs. Leatrice Whitcomb.

CLASS PROPHECY

While gazing restlessly out over the rooftops of my New York apartment, my mind started to wander sub-consciously back to my childhood chums at good old Shiloh High School. The more I turned the never ending memories over in my mind, the more I longed to see my dear old friends once more. Since my husband was still in the Merchant Marine Corp on Lake Erie, I packed my bags and started for the rolling Hog Back Hills once more.

As I boarded the train at Grand Central Station, I heard above the noise and din of voices a sweet familiar tenor note, and looking around, I saw my old time friend BILL HALLIWELL, selling green apples and wormey peanuts. Ah, yes, that boy was always a salesman at heart!

As I settled myself and gazed admiringly at the country-side, I saw a flaming streak pass the train at a speed of about one hundred miles an hour. I became curious as to what this was, and to my surprise, at the next crossroad, MERILYN VAN WAGNER waved a hello. She was now working for the Pony Express with faithful old Paint carrying her roaring across the country.

After this shock I picked up the Daily News to quiet my jittery nerves, and staring at me was a huge picture of none other than HOWARD CLARK. He was running for President, and winning votes by playing his trumpet for the Bobby Soxers and promising baseball games on the White House lawn!

As the train continued whistling on its way, a small puny man with horn-rimmed spectacles and a butterfly net under his arm sat down beside me. Turning my head I recognized DARRELL HUDSON. He informed me that he was now Assistant Professor of "Rangalones Byprofearredth Angelisems" at the "Harvard University." I noticed that PROFESSOR HUDSON had taken on a pronounced English accent.

When I reached Chicago, I stepped from the train to rest my legs, and who did I see but my school-days chum, BETTY ROSE, decked in furs from "Kobackers" and diamonds from "Woolworths". She was hanging on the arm of George Adams, who was now a Rear Admiral of the U. S. S. ROWBOAT.

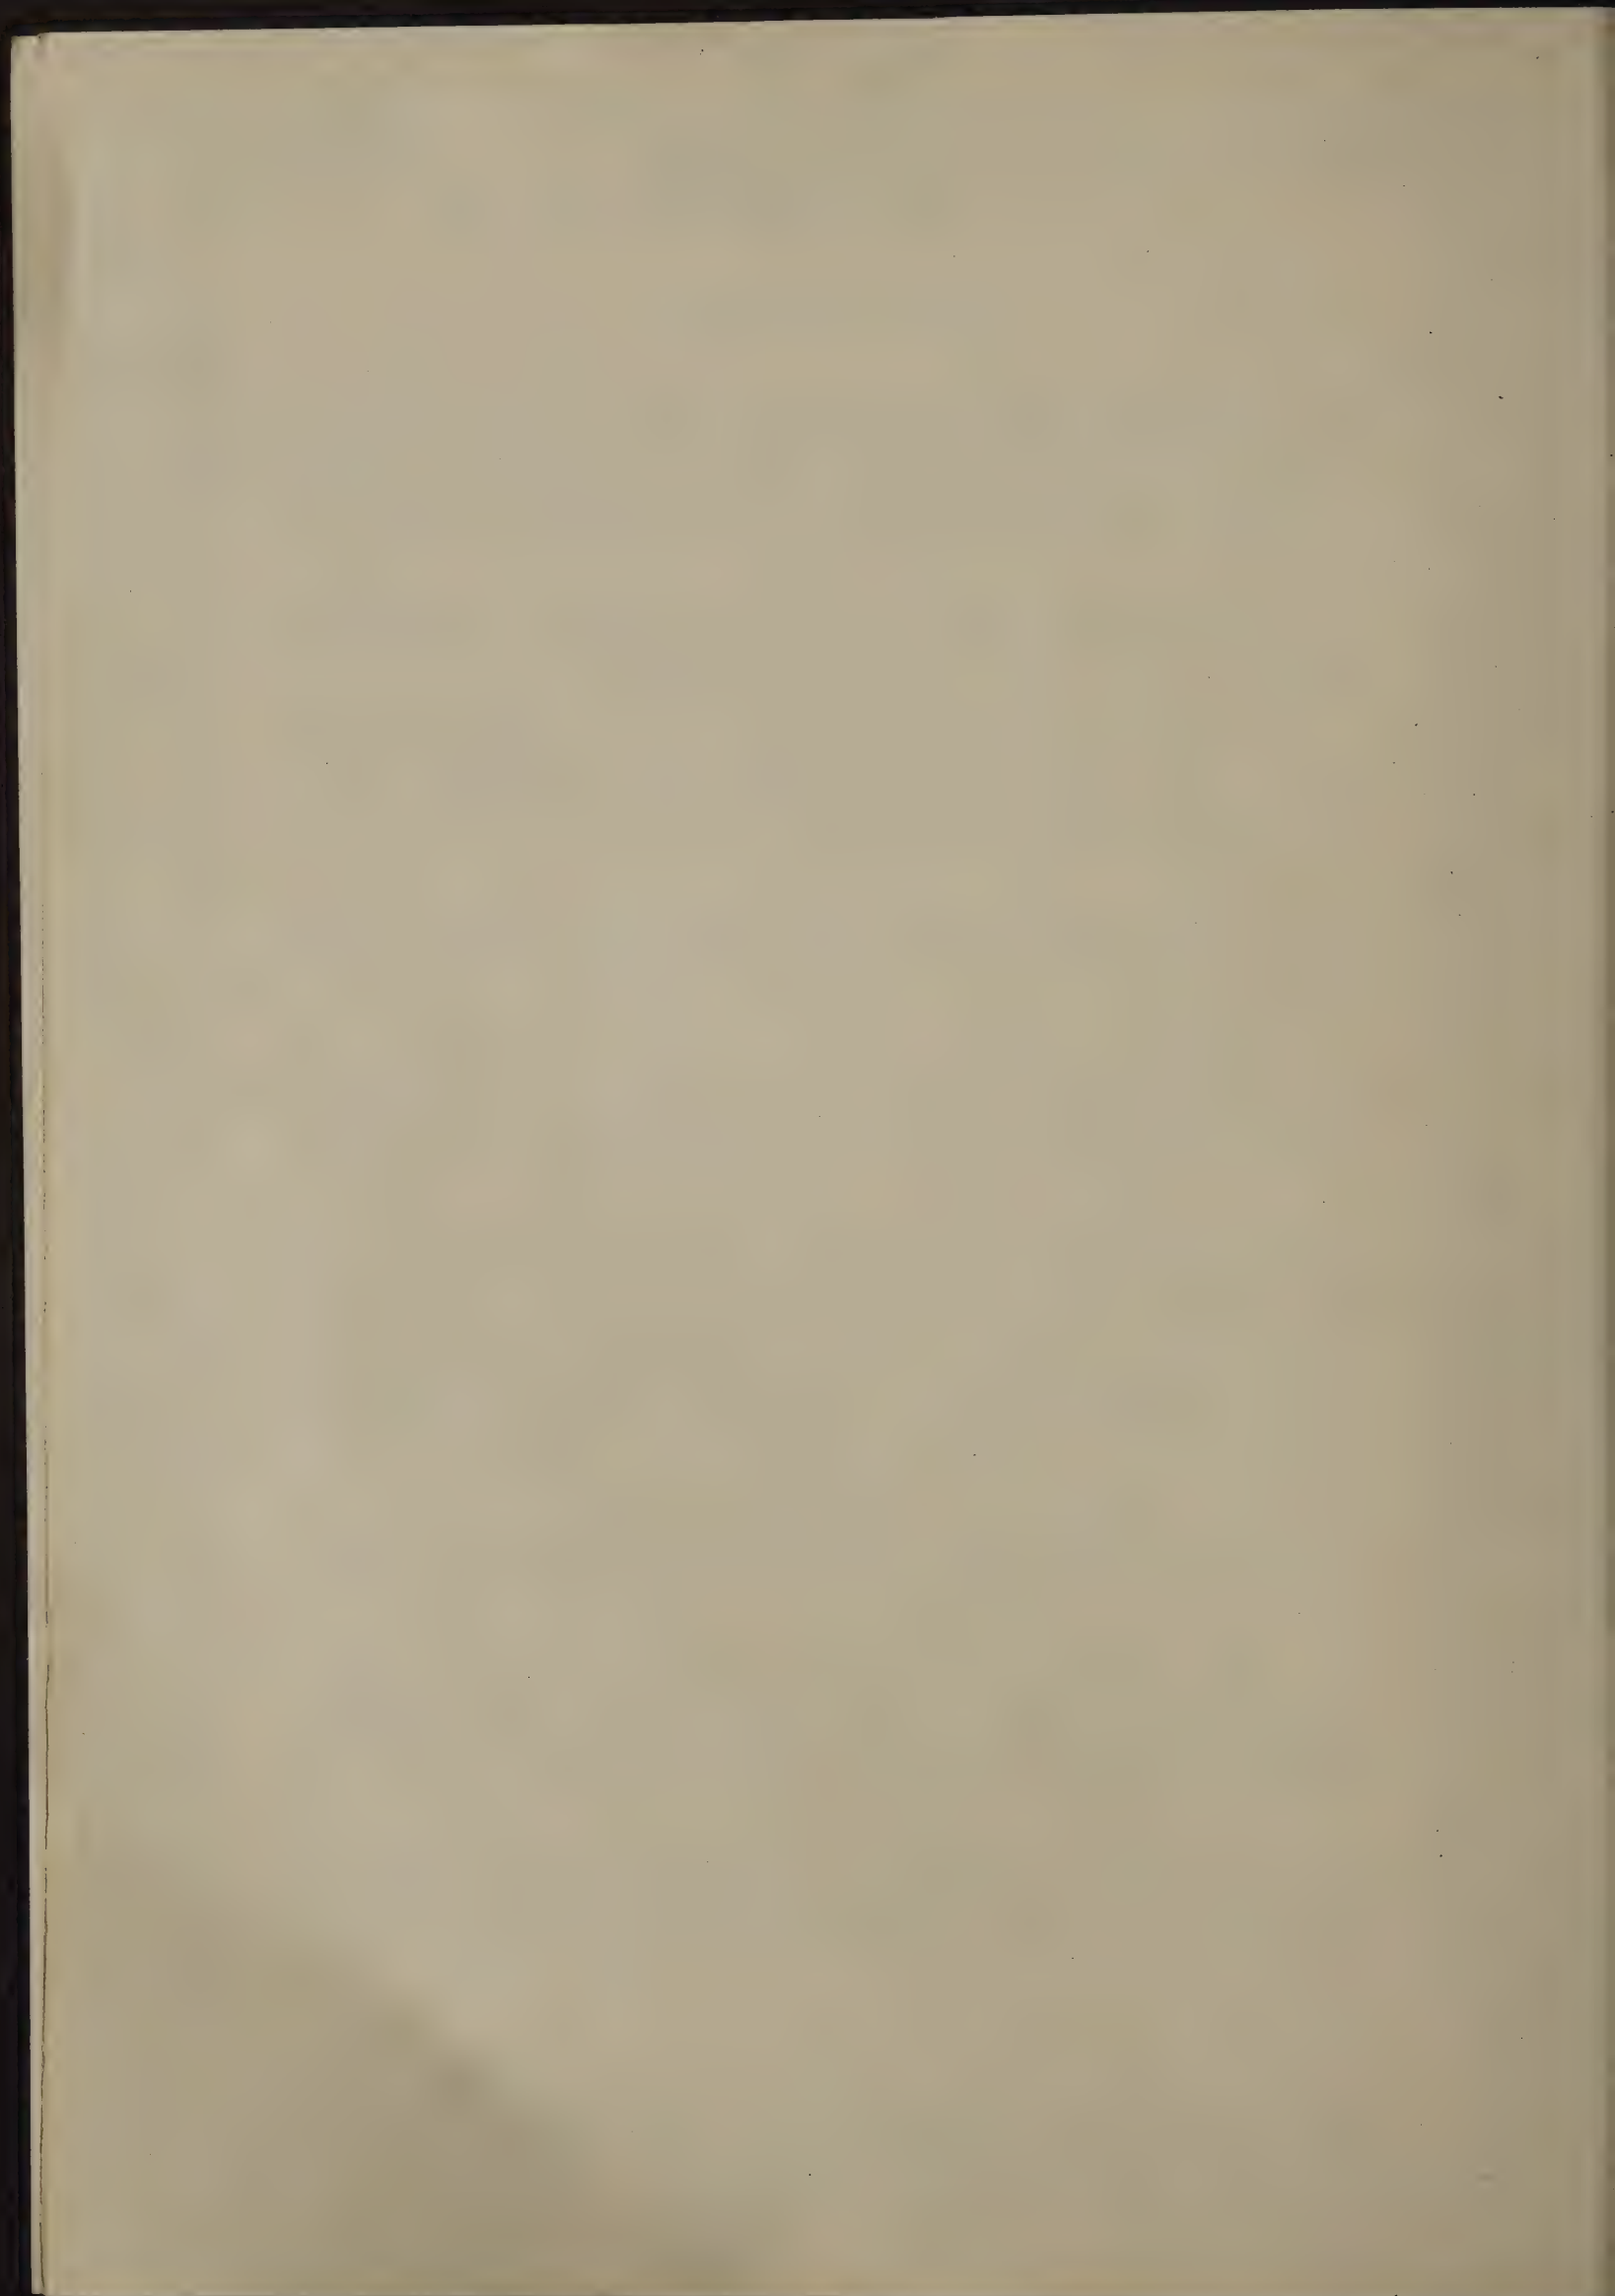

At long last after many pleasant surprises I arrived at the Willard railroad station. I decided that since I had not been in Willard for years, I would stroll up to the city square, and upon arriving, who did I see but NAOMI WOLFORD, cruising down Main Street on a motorcycle, blowing a whistle. I finally hailed her and found to my amazement that she was the first woman traffic cop in Ohio.

After doing some aimless window shopping, I entered a fashionable dress shoppe, and who did I find modeling gowns from Vogue but DORIS GARRETT. She said that she had to go to work, as her handsome husband from Amhurst, Ohio wasn't the industrious type, and spent all his time playing pool and spending her money.

I had fully decided I had better start for Shiloh if I intended to, so I hired a taxi and was soon on the road. On the edge of Willard a bright red coaster wagon glided past. I thought the face was familiar, so I ordered the driver to stop. There with six crates of eggs sat DOROTHY GUTHRIE, coasting into Willard to sell her eggs. She is now married to Lyle Dawson, who she said was home minding Hester, Chester Lester, and Salvester, the little Dawsons.

On the outskirts of Plymouth, we stopped by a truck with a flat tire to see if we could be of any help. My wondering eyes beheld DONNA MAE GARRETT fixing the tire. She said that she was now Mrs. Dutch Livenspire and that she spent her waking hours weeding onions just two miles south of Shiloh. And to think that DARRELL was now a professor!!

When we arrived in Plymouth, Ohio, I heard the strains of a band and sure enough on the corner by the bank building was MARLYN BRUNN playing her symbols, drum, and piccolo. I stopped and asked what on earth was going on, and was informed that Joe had run away with a Hula Girl ten years ago, so she had joined the Salvation Army and was their most active member, black hat and all. Poor girl! I asked her where her childhood chum, BETTY ERNST was, and with an old maid's sigh, she told me Betty was touring the country with a side-show of Barnum & Bailey Circus, as the only woman alive who could giggle for a solid hour without breathing!!

When I finally reached Shiloh, I decided first to visit the school, and upon entering I saw a typewriter whirl dizzily from the typing room door. Walking into the room, I found VIRGINIA KIRKENDALL and she informed me that she was trying to teach Doug Amstutz to type. By now she was a commercial teacher, and poor Doug was still a Junior in High. It seemed she even used violence!

I then strolled down town, and as I passed Murphy's, I heard a radio blasting the Ohio State football game. When I listened more closely I learned that DICK CLARK was quarter-back for that team!! The crowd at Murphy's was so excited they were throwing candy boxes out the front door!

When I finally caught my breath, I walked on down the street, and was interested in a gayly painted sign advertising "Chicken Dinner". I became interested and entered to find a quaint little restaurant. In one corner sat my dear old friend LEATRICE WHITCOMB KILGORE, with a lovely expression on her face. She told me that the pretty waitresses were her five daughters, and that Harry and she had gone into business shortly after he got out of the Navy, since he could make 'Chop Suey' out of anything.

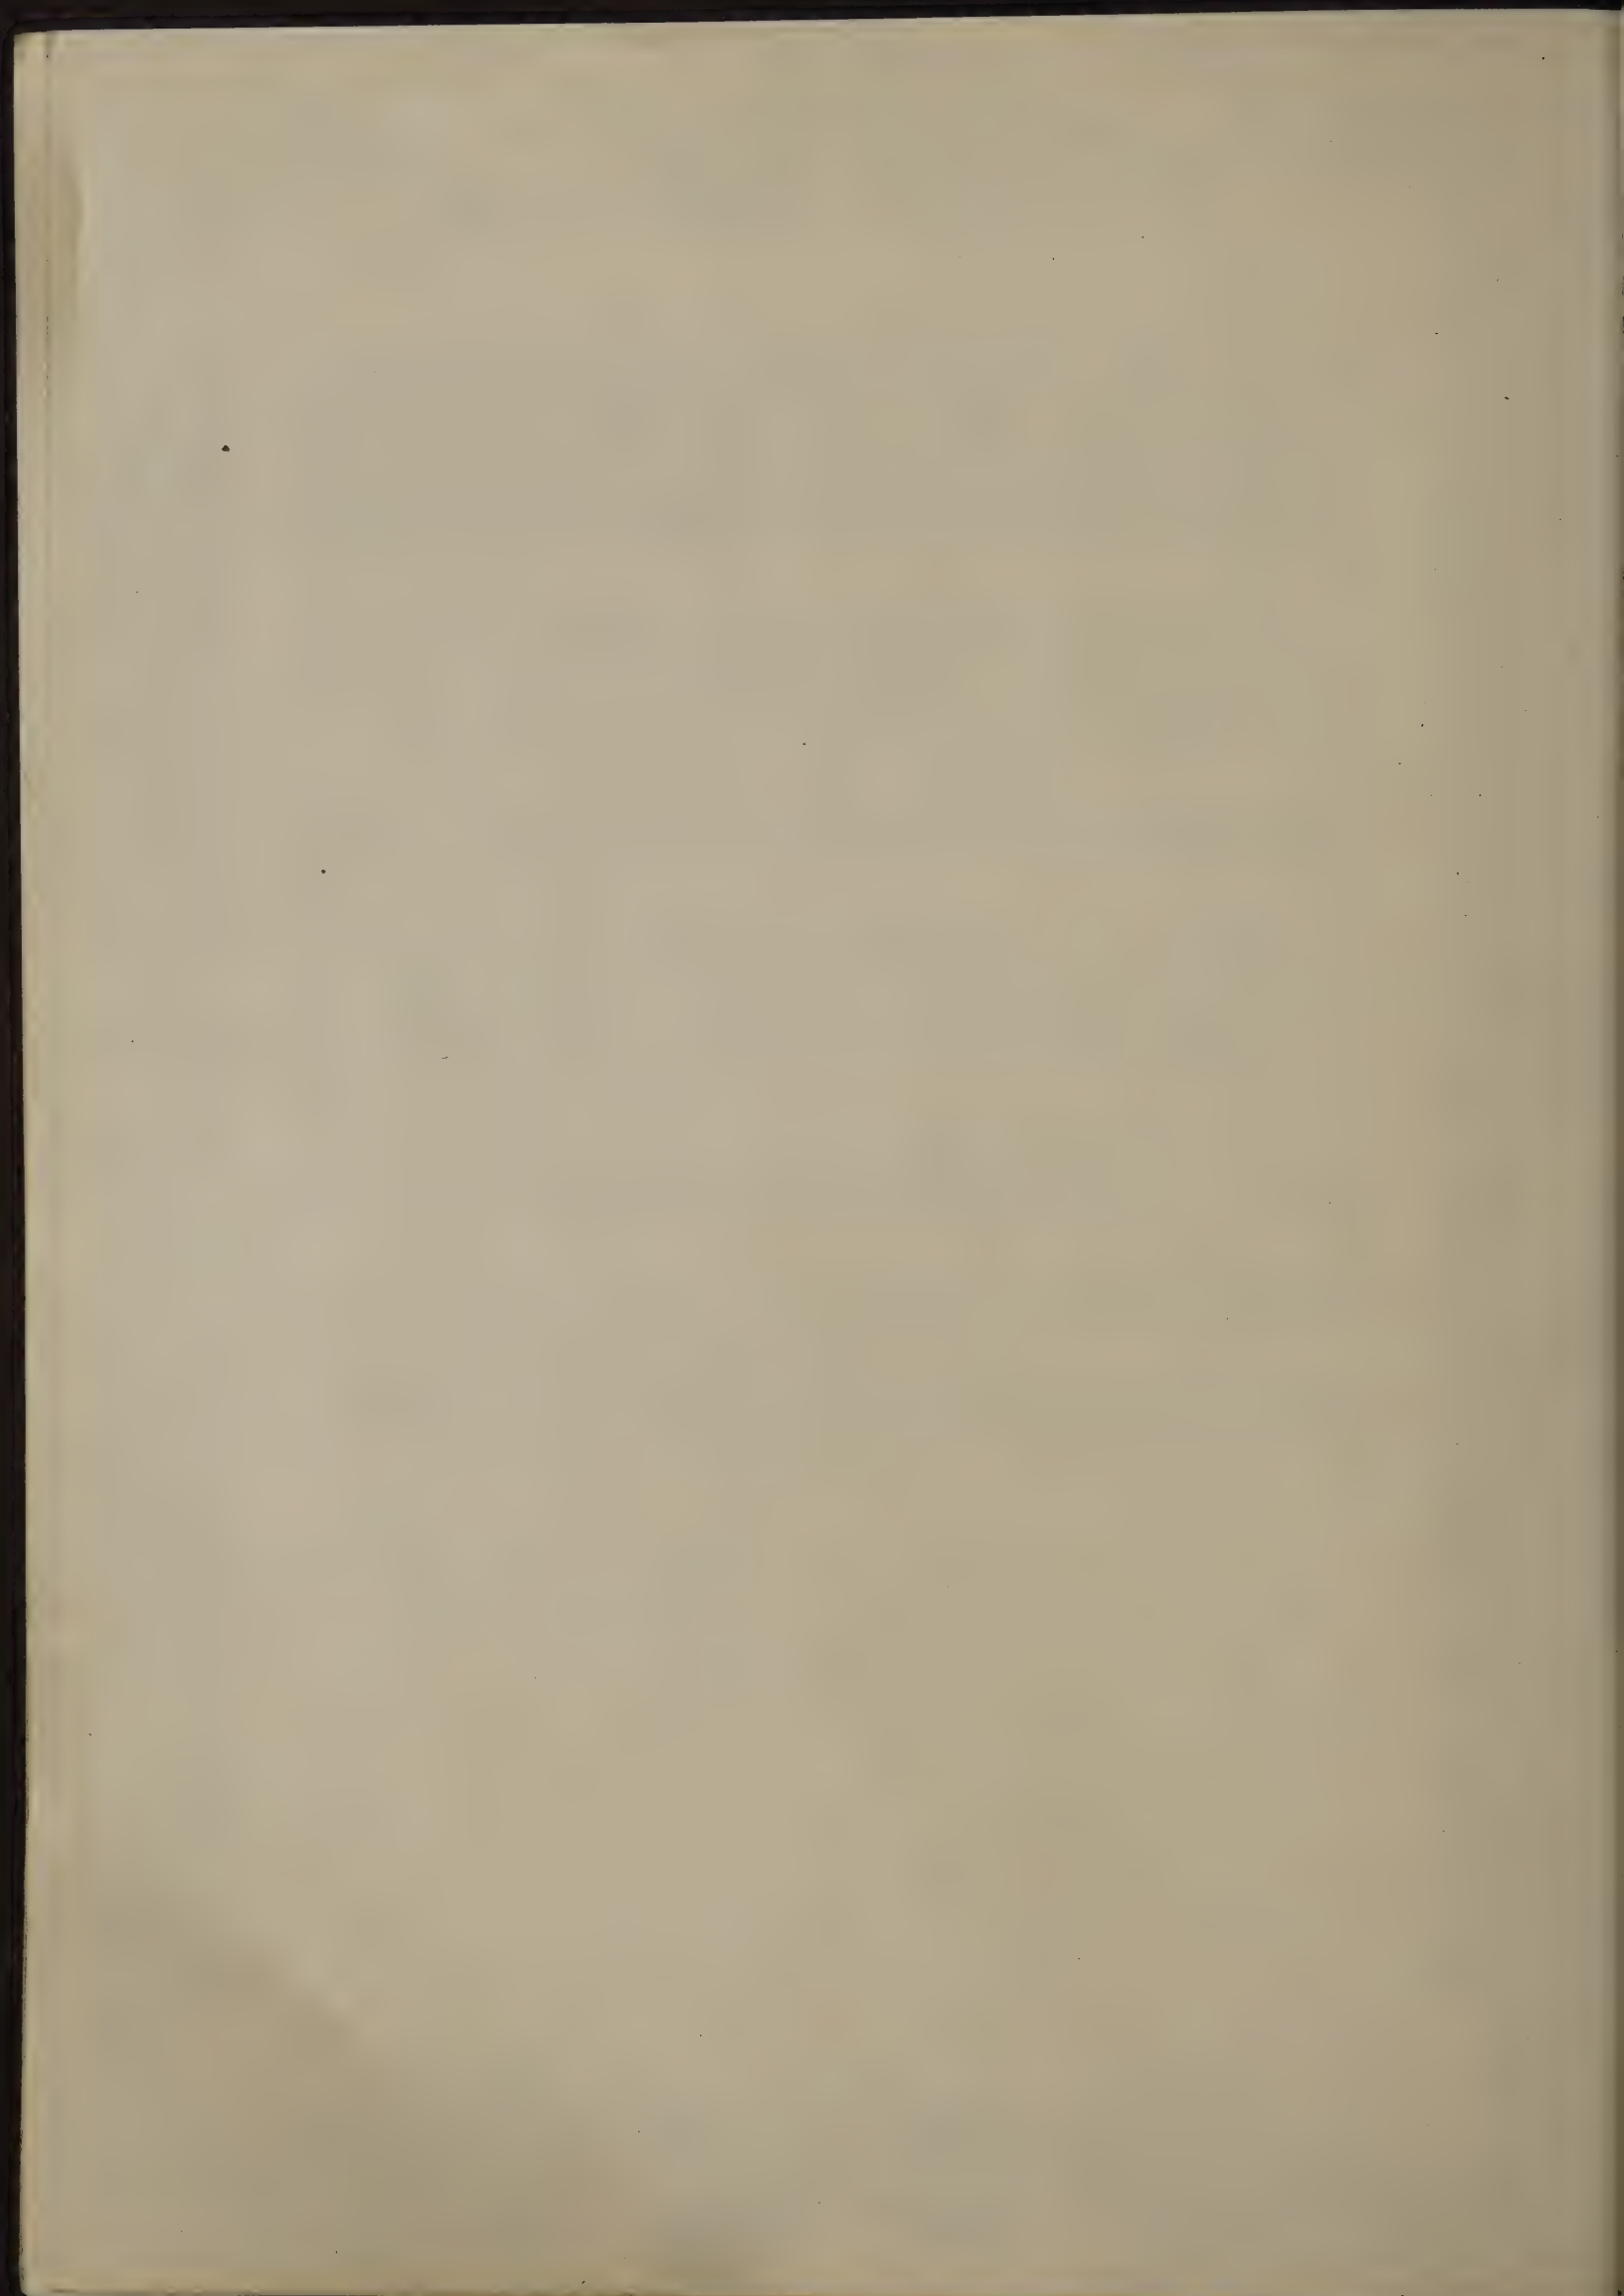

As I proceeded down Main Street, I noticed a tractor at the curb and on it was an over-all clad woman. When I looked closer I saw my old pal RUTH BELL. She said she had come up town to get some hog slop, and that Bob was at home planting corn. They were now living in a log cabin along the Black Fork.

JEANNE WISLER was the only one of my classmates I had not seen, so I inquired and found that she was happily married to Bob Fidler, and they had a business in Elyria selling dried fish and week old oysters.

This was too much; I left for New York on the next train, hoping to find some peace and quiet there until once again I ventured to Ohio and the "Beautiful, Picturesque, Hogback Hills"!!!!

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

To the Class of '47 we leave the "Dignified, quiet Senior Room" where the greatest class of Shiloh High lived, learned and left. To the janitor we leave all our "Hubbas" and classic "Boings"!! We only hope he uses them as well as we did. And individually, we leave in good faith and hope you take good care of them, the following assets:

DORIS GARRETT leaves her secret power for picking up good-looking Air Corp men to Jeannette Forquer.

JEANNE WISLER leaves her barnyard giggle to Choppy Moser, who almost overdoes it with chewing gum!

VIRGINIA KIRKENDALL leaves her cafeteria job to Izora Rhodes, as she is now thinking of entertaining a guy named Bill for a life-time job!

NAOMI WOLFORD leaves her clarinet to Donna Seaton. She is more interested in men who can wash their socks Merchant Marine style!!

LEATRICE KILGORE leaves her Monday morning yawns to Joan McKee. Maybe Bill Halliwell would know why!

MERILYN VAN WAGNER leaves old Dobbin to Jim Reynolds. Even Dobbin could pass that snazzie jalopy he pilots around!!

DARRELL HUDSON leaves his false front of innocence to Dick Rader. Who says he is the bashful type??

BILL HALLIWELL leaves his sales talk to Douglas Amstutz. We hear it works well on redheads!

DONNA GARRETT leaves her habit of never being on time to Irma Brooks. Don't over-do-it, Irma!

BETTY ROSE leaves her ability to be everywhere at the same time to anyone who has enough pep to take over!!!

DOTTIE GUTHRIE leaves her technique to any girl who can handle it. Don't all rush at once!!!

HOWARD CLARK leaves his well-worn line to anyone who thinks it won't break!!!

DICK CLARK leaves his manly physique to Jimmy Huston. Better take it while you have the chance, Jimmy.

MARLYN BRUNN leaves her voice to Gerry Moser. If you don't need it, Gerry, throw it away!!

MARY BENEDICT leaves all her men in Willard to Joan Guthrie. Boy Joan, it looks like you'll be sitting home nights.

RUTH BELL leaves one of her men to Dorothy Brooks. Which One??? That's the $64 question.

BETTY ERNST leaves her charm to Doris Leaply. That's something you can always use!!!

And last but not least MR. MYLANDER leaves the entire Senior Class to Toledo. Who could take better care of them????????????????????

We here-by appoint the following, as sound-minded, law-abiding citizens, to witness this last will and testament of the Senior Class:

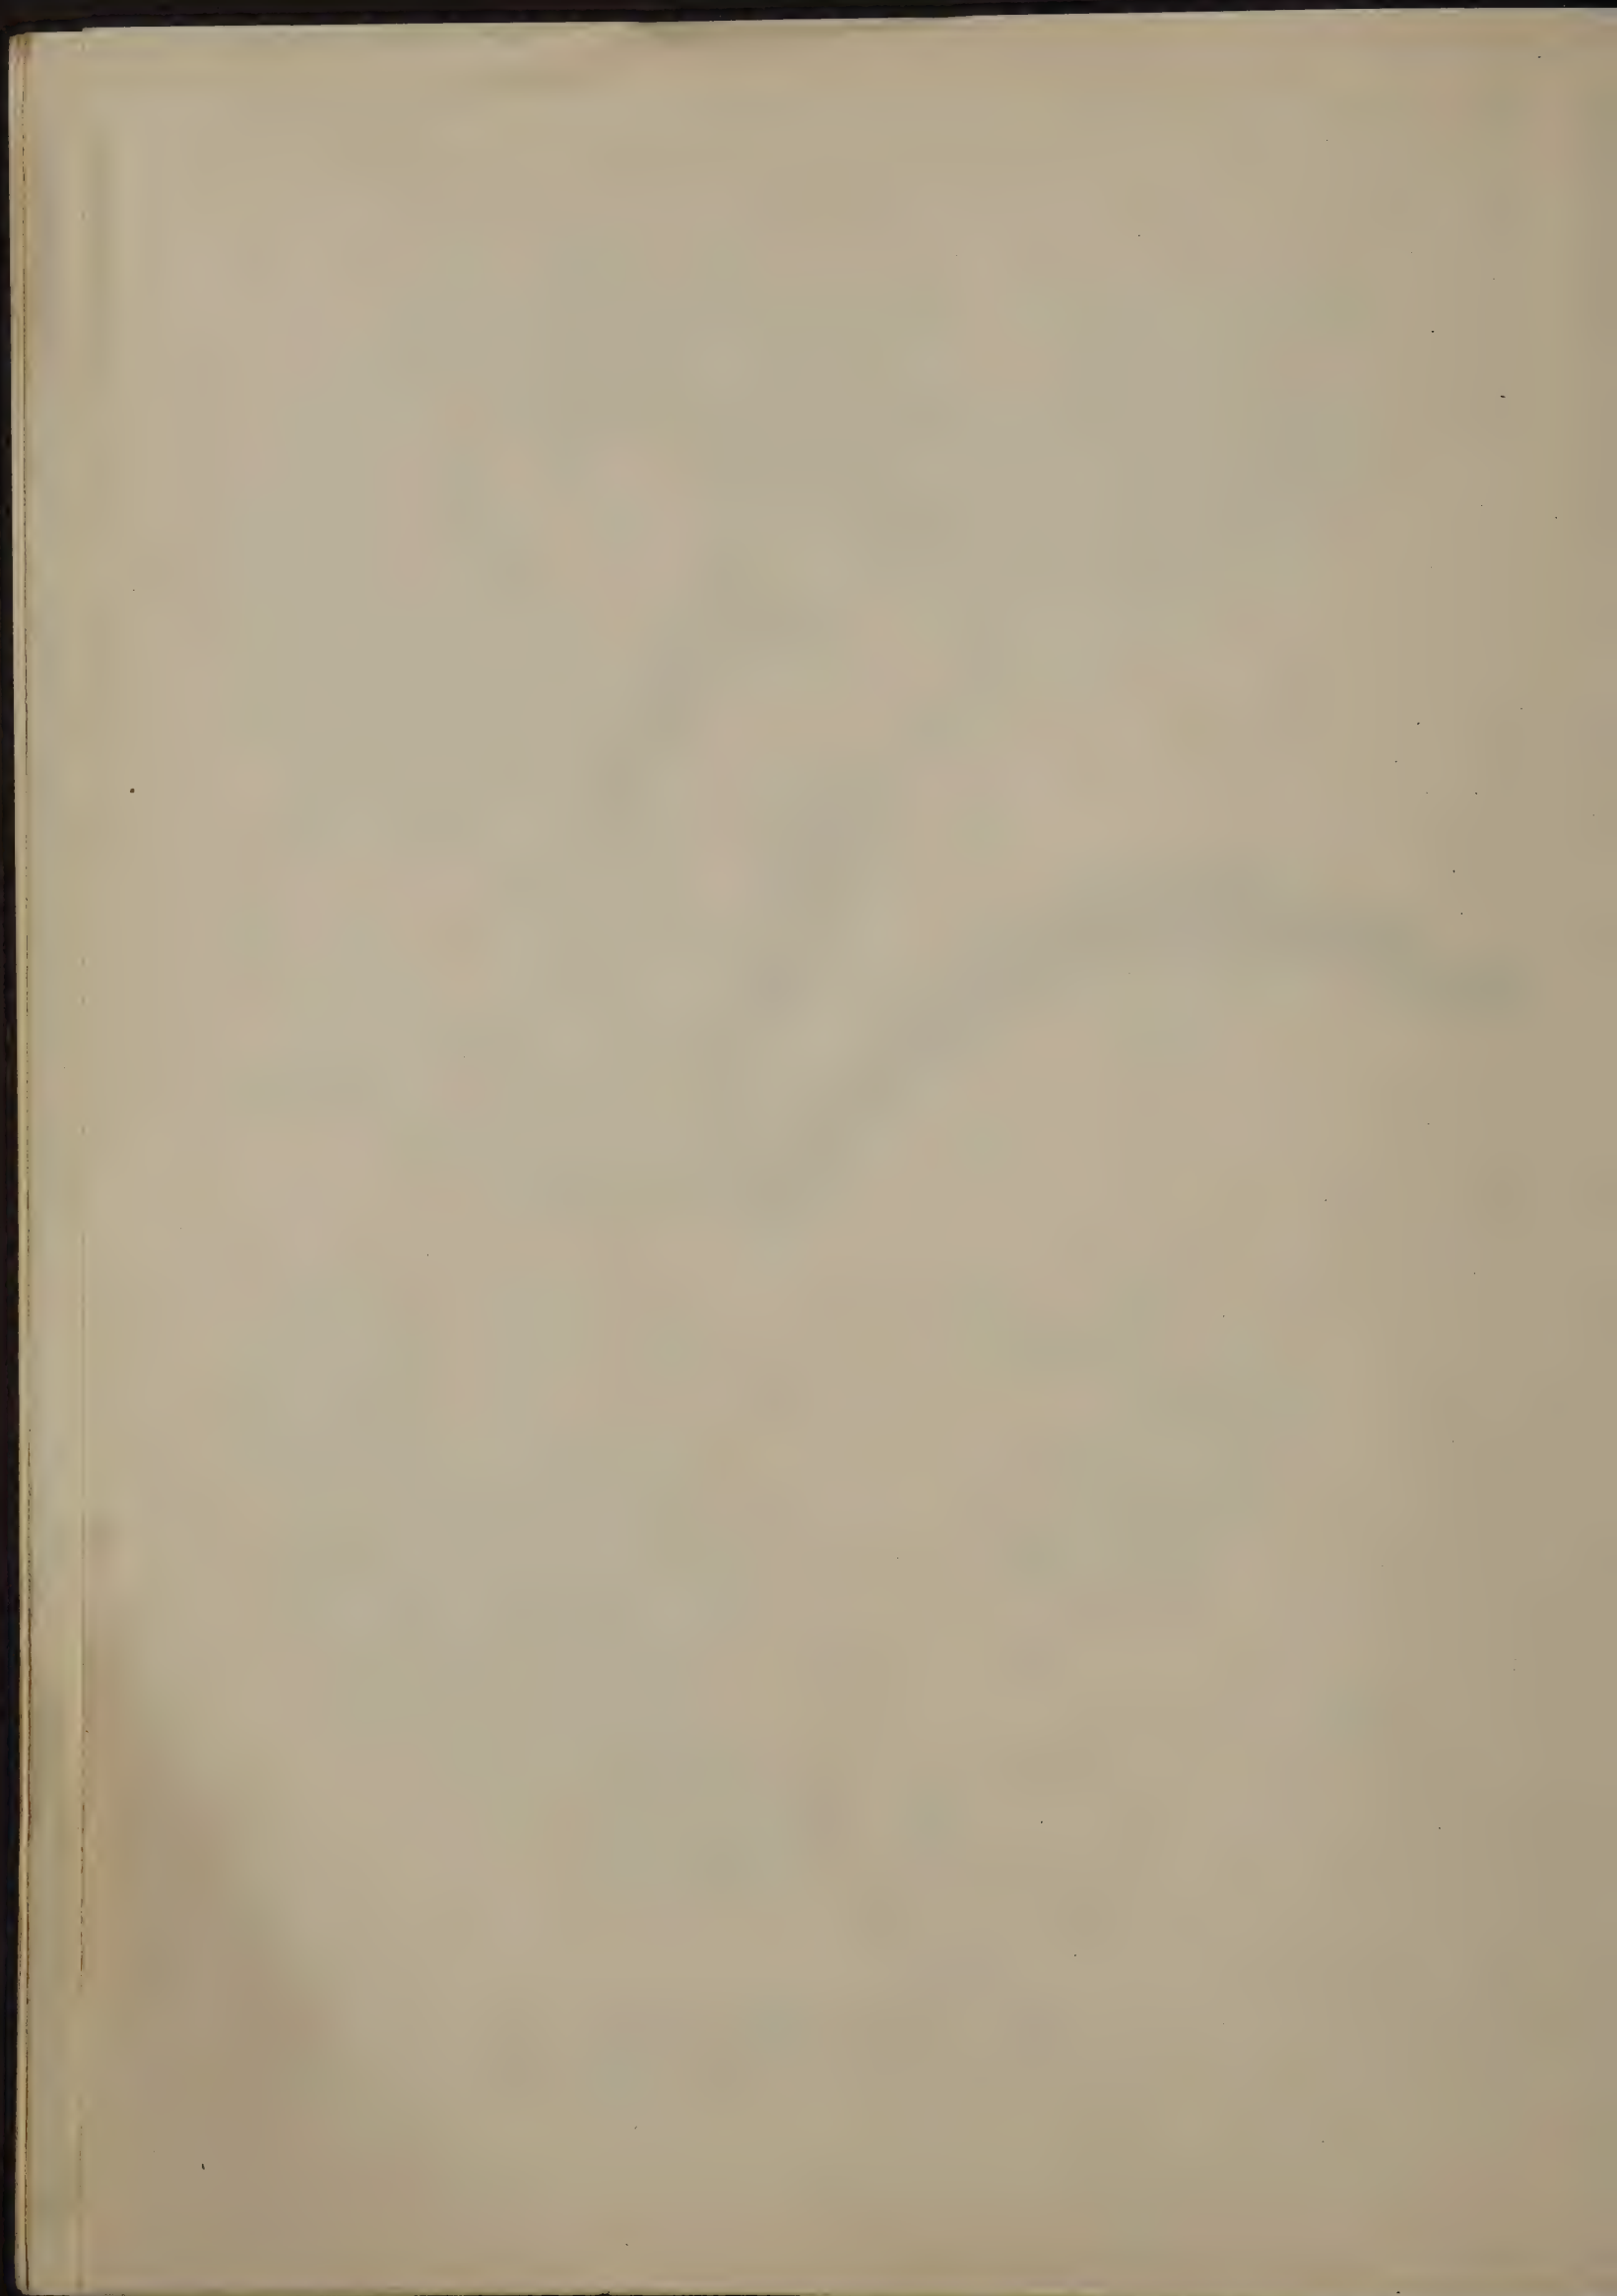

- 1- Power Who-Do
- 2- Frank Sinatra
- 3- Frank (pick up the paper) Koker.

POET'S CORNER

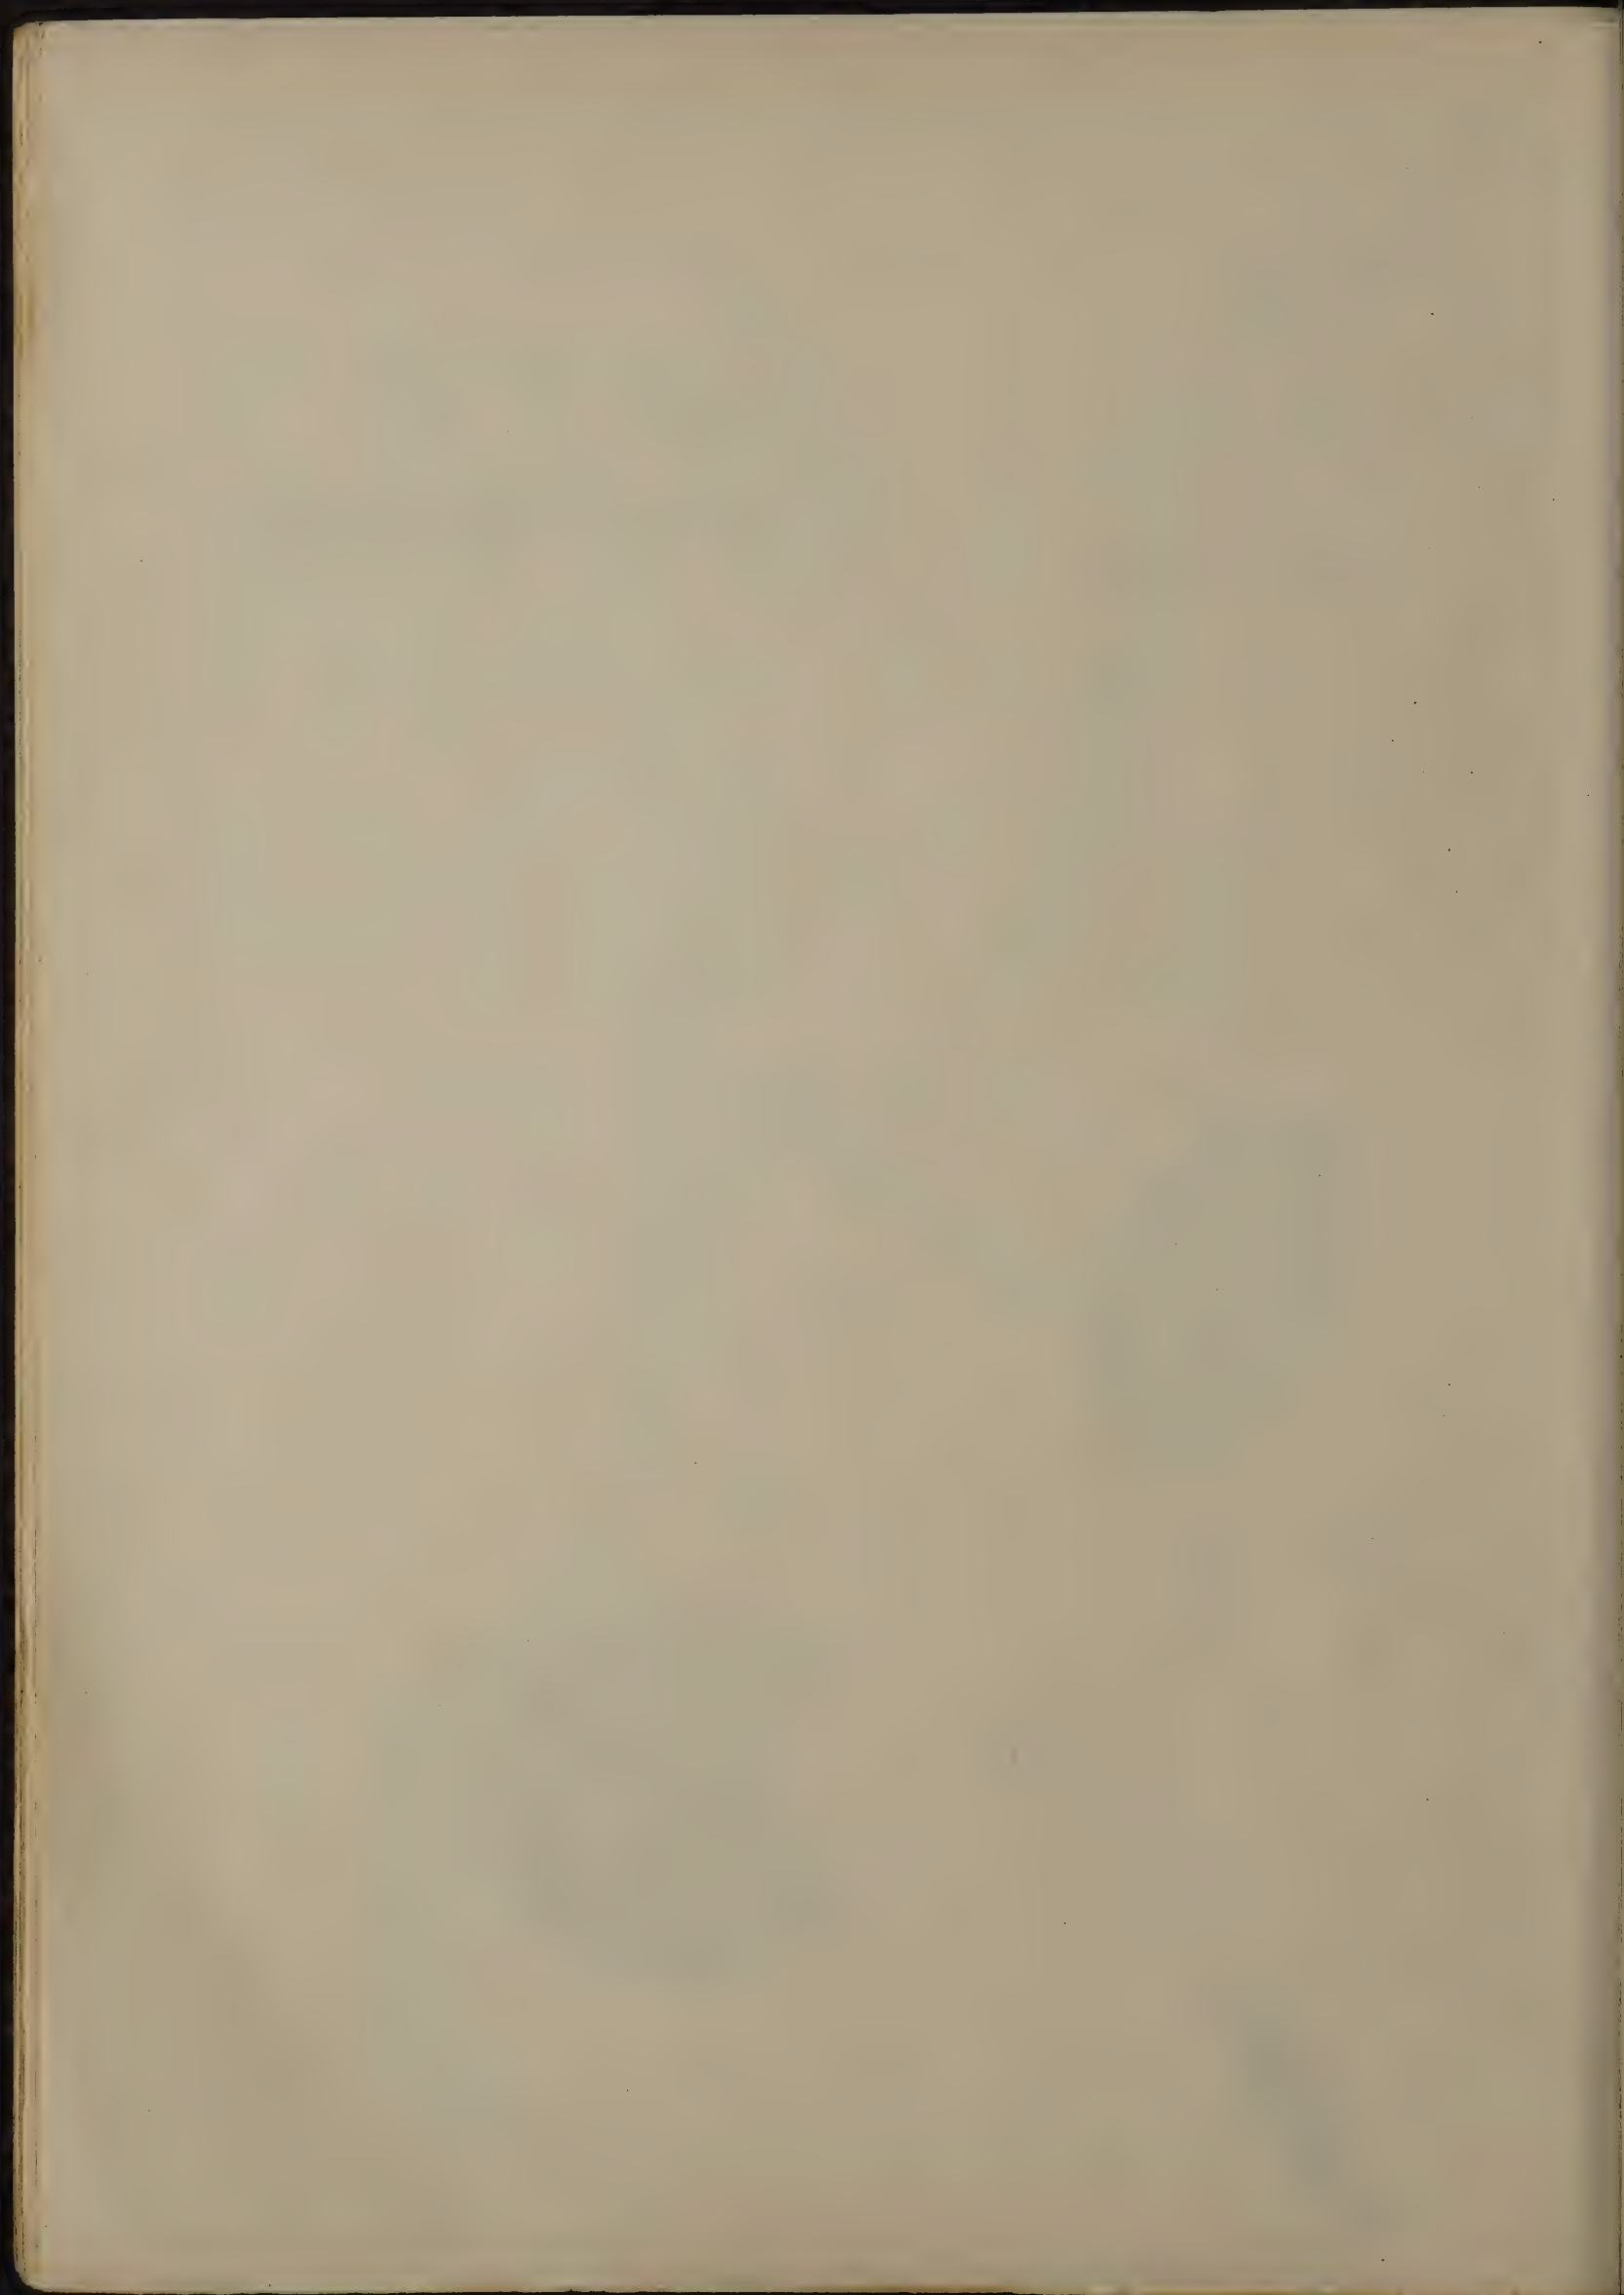

I don't kiss, I don't neck
 I don't say bad words, I just say heck.
 I'm always good, always nice,
 I don't play poker, or shoot dice.
 I don't drink, I don't flirt,
 I don't gossip, or spread dirt.
 I have no lines, or clever tricks,
 But what the heck - I'm only six!!

I wish I was a wittle egg,
 Away up in a twee
 I wish I was a wittle egg,
 As wotten as could be.
 And when some nasty bos'n mate
 Would start to shout at me--
 I'd frow my wotten wittle self
 And spwatter down on he!!!
